MISSION TO LITERATE INDIA

India has a population of crores, somewhere a child sitting in her thatched home has no money to buy primary books, while on the other side, another child is surrounded by millions of untouched books. There needs to be balance in education, and hence Guruji Education honors itself in being- India's first free online books shopping platform. All books are available on the website completely free of cost. Only a bare minimum shipping charge is issued for books that are ordered, otherwise all books available in the Guruji Education center are free of any charges. All book donors will be awarded with a Guruji T-shirt and a certificate of appreciation for contribution to the mission of teaching India. Further, Guruji Education volunteers help donate these books by individually visiting rural schools. So, join our hand and help us remove the barrier of money to education.

JOIN OUR MISSION TO LITERATE INDIA

We all know that millions of students are deprived of books while on the other side millions of books lay idle in the corner of a room. It is definitely a matter that needs grave attention. Hence, Guruji has come up with an innovative solution.

Guruji education aims to build a platform where students from all backgrounds can get books completely free of cost. All book donors are also awarded with a certificate of appreciation for the contribution to the mission to literate India and a Guruji T-shirt as a memento. All books are available on the website. Guruji honours itself in being - "India's first free online books shopping platform".

इंडिया पढ़ेगा भी और आगे
बढ़ेगा भी।

Guruji aims to teach one and all, and hopes to literate everyone in the near future. This is India's first free online books shopping platform, we plan to provide education especially to those who are deprived of knowledge because of costly books and study material.

Donate to Educate

India's first free online books shopping platform is the biggest innovation for Indian education system. Now every student can own books completely FREE of cost. All donated books directly go on to our online website hence every book donor is well informed about if his/her book is being published on our website. All those who receive the donated books can directly thank their donors. Books can be ordered both offline and online. Guruji education volunteers visit various rural schools and institutions where they help by donating books to all needy students.
